Immortality Is Topic of Sermon

Spiritual healing will be a topic dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

Scriptural selections will include this verse from Matthew: "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease."

One of the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states:

"Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them. This is an element of progress, and progress, is the law of God, whose law demands of us only what we can certainly fulfill" (p. 233).

Assembly Will Convene Nov. 16

Many local families will be in attendance as 16 local congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses convene at Longshoremen's Memorial Auditorium, "C" and Fries Sts., Wilmington, Nov. 16-18, for their semi-annual circuit assembly, stated L. E. Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance congregation.

"Jehovah's Witnesses," Olliff said, "are concerned with increasing problems facing young people in our fast-moving society. They, as other loving parents, have no desire for their children to become like the disobedient, arrogant delinquents whose unlawful acts are appearing constantly.

"They do not want them to become social sores in the community. They can prevent it by teaching their children God's word and love for His righteous principles."

"From their earliest years Witness children are guided in a way that leads to God's approval," he added. "As they grow older, their continuance in this way of righteousness depends less and less upon their parents' influence and more and more upon themselves.

"The obligation of being a teaching parent comes straight from the Bible. Assemblies such as this one are designed with the needs of both parents and children in mind."

Theodore Jaracz, district supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, will give the main discourse on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, "The Bible's Answers to Our Problem of Survival."

'Freedom Trail' To Be Telecast

"Freedom Trail," history of the development of America's tradition of religious liberty, will be featured on a special Thanksgiving re-lease of the "It Is Written" telecast, on KCOP, Channel 13, at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, according to Manson Metcalf, minister of the Torrance Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia Ave.

On-the-spot motion pictures of scenes where historic battles were fought are included in the half-hour telecast, notes Metcalf. George Vandeman is narrator.
